Anca Dragu is on a working visit to Bucharest, where the discussions on the interconnection of the Moldovan and Romanian capital markets continue

The Governor of the National Bank of Moldova (NBM), Anca Dragu, is on a working visit to Bucharest, where she will hold talks with representatives of the Bucharest Stock Exchange, the Financial Supervisory Authority and the National Bank of Romania (NBR). The visit aims to promote the interconnection of the capital markets of the Republic of Moldova and Romania and to deepen supervisory mechanisms and the intervention instruments.

On the first day of the visit, 9 April 2024, Anca Dragu will hold meetings at the Bucharest Stock Exchange, where she will discuss stock exchange trading patterns, the interaction between market operators and the supervisory authority, the role of the central depository. Another meeting will take place at the Financial Supervisory Authority and will focus on the supervision of equity transactions, reporting to the supervisory authority and its intervention measures.

On 10 April, Anca Dragu will hold discussions with representatives of the National Bank of Bucharest. They will focus on transparency supervision, prior approval models for holdings and, also, supervisory mechanisms and intervention measures applied by the central bank.

The delegation of the National Bank of Moldova also includes Deputy Governors Constantin Șchendra and Tatiana Ivanicichina, Adviser Alexandru Savva and heads of NBM subdivisions.

Promoting the interconnection of capital markets of the Republic of Moldova and Romania was recently addressed at the Forum “Moldova-Romania: capital Bridges” <sup>[1]</sup> held in Bucharest with the participation of high-level officials from the two states and the Governor of the NBM, Anca Dragu. The visit follows these efforts to boost the development of the capital market of the Republic of Moldova through interaction with the Bucharest Stock Exchange and to deepen economic cooperation between the two countries.
