The analysis of cash operations in the national currency for January 2021

In December 2020, the currency in circulation (M0)¹ amounted to MDL 29,818.9 million, increasing by MDL 6,865.7 million (29.9%) compared to December 2019 (Chart no. 1) as a result of exceeding of the volume of cumulative releases over the volume of cumulative receipts per banking system² in the period of January - December 2020. During the mentioned period, the volume of total releases amounted to MDL130,841.1 million and that of receipts - MDL 123,975.4 million. The major part (28.1 % of the total volume) was released to purchase foreign currencies from individuals. At the same time, cash receipts from the sale of consumer goods (regardless of the sales channel) held a share of 57.7 % in the volume of total receipts.

In January 2021, the volume of cash releases exceeded the volume of cash receipts per banking system, thus increasing the currency in circulation by MDL 46.7 million (0.16 %) compared to the end of 2020.
