Career week at the National Bank of Moldova: Young people discover career opportunities in the financial - banking sector

The National Bank of Moldova (NBM) is holding the second edition of the "NBM Career Week" during the period November 18-22, 2024. The event brings together hundreds of students and professionals, giving them the opportunity to explore the challenges and prospects of a career in the financial-banking sector.

At the event, participants take part in interactive sessions, practical workshops and discussions with experts from the National Bank. They also discover how the National Bank contributes to the country's economic and financial stability and learn about internship programs and job opportunities.

The NBM Governor, Anca Dragu, emphasized the role that young people can play in strengthening the financial system of the Republic of Moldova. At the same time, Anca Dragu appreciated the efforts of the central bank's team to create platforms where innovative ideas and the desire to make a change contribute to the economic future of Moldova.

"I congratulate my colleagues for organizing this meeting with young people, an important step in our constant concern to identify the talents that will shape Moldova's financial future. The tasks and responsibilities of the NBM are expanding and diversifying, and young people's perspectives are essential as we continue to meet the challenges with professionalism and innovation. We invite them to join our team and contribute to building a stable and prosperous future for the country," said Anca Dragu, Governor of the National Bank of Moldova.

The "NBM Career Week", organized for the second consecutive year, reflects the National Bank's commitment to invest in the training of the new generation and to promote excellence in the financial-banking sector.
