The National Bank will carry out financial education activities on the occasion of the World Savings Day

The National Bank of Moldova (NBM) will carry out financial education activities for pupils and students on October 31, 2024, on the occasion of the World Savings Day.

The central bank opens its doors to the public eager to find out what a central bank is, the history of the national currency and other interesting facts from the financial world.

Visitors will have the opportunity to see the exhibition hall where the collection of commemorative and jubilee coins issued by the National Bank is presented and to admire the objects of monetary art dedicated to personalities, events and cultural-historical monuments of our country. They will also be able to hear a short history of the emergence of the Moldovan leu and watch a presentation on the security features of the national currency.

Access to the bank will be granted according to the list, upon presentation of an ID. Those interested are kindly asked to send their request to edufin@bnm.md [1] .

The visits will be scheduled at fixed hours, at the NBM headquarters, 1 Grigore Vieru Avenue, Chisinau.
