NBM and "Expert-Grup" invite young people to the camp "Financial education for all"

[1]

The National Bank of Moldova (NBM) and the Independent Analytical Centre "Expert-Grup" have prepared a special holiday opportunity for high school and college students at the camp "Financial education for all", which will take place from 26 to 28 June 2024 in the town Vadul lui Voda.

Through interactive training sessions, hands-on activities and learning experiences, the organisers aim to encourage participants to learn, grow and take control of their own budgets. In this way, they will increase their confidence and autonomy in managing their financial resources. Young people will be able to leave the camp with new impressions, skills and understanding needed to make informed and supportive financial choices for their future.

Young people between 15 and 19 years old, who speak Romanian and are willing to participate in the camp for the whole three days are invited. For participants who have not reached the age of majority, a written consent from a parent or guardian will be required.

Those wishing to register for the camp can complete this form [2].

The event will take place within the framework of the National Financial Education Campaign with the support of the USAID Moldova project "Institutional and Structural Reforms in Moldova" (MISRA). The "Financial education for all" campaign was launched last autumn and is aimed at all citizens, regardless of age and occupation.
