VIDEO// NBM and the Financial Analysists Society CFA Romania Jointly Promote the Development of Financial Instruments in the Republic of Moldova

On 24 September 2019, the National Bank of Moldova (NBM) jointly with the CFA Society Romania will organize the high-level conference “Development of Financial Instruments in the Republic of Moldova”.

During the event, professional investors from the Republic of Moldova and those from abroad will have the possibility to make an exchange of experience, extend their knowledge about the financial instruments available on the capital market from Moldova and transactions made on other markets, as well as improve their knowledge about the risks associated to this field etc.

The purpose of the conference is to support the development of the financial market and implement professional excellence in the financial sector of the Republic of Moldova.

The conference will gather speakers holding the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA®) designation and other specialists in the field of financial markets and instruments, as well as representatives of companies from Moldova and abroad.

The event will be attended by high-level representatives of the National Bank of Moldova, the National Commission for Financial Markets and other public authorities, representatives of international organizations and big companies, licensed banks, economic experts etc.

This is the first conference held in Chisinau with the participation of CFA Society Romania representatives, which gathers some of the best specialists certified in the financial industry and has the aim to promote high standards of integrity and professional excellence.
