NBM Governor held a meeting with the Deputy Chair of the Board of Bank of Lithuania within the framework of concluding the Twinning project

The Governor of the National Bank of Moldova, Anca Dragu, held a meeting with Asta Kuniyoshi, Deputy Chair of the Board of Bank of Lithuania.

Discussions primarily centred on the achievements of the Twinning project "Strengthening supervision, corporate governance and risk management in the financial sector", which has recently concluded, and the prospects for continued bilateral cooperation as Moldova progresses towards European Union membership.

During the meeting, Anca Dragu expressed gratitude for the support provided by Lithuanian colleagues in implementing the aforementioned project, which has promoted reforms in the financial and banking sectors, thus advancing the implementation of the Moldova-EU Association Agreement and Agenda.

Anca Dragu added that she wanted to develop the local financial market and appreciated the experience of the Bank of Lithuania in this regard.

Furthermore, the Governor reiterated her expectations for improved financial intermediation in the Republic of Moldova aiming to provide more benefits for businesses and citizens.

In response, Asta Kuniyoshi reaffirmed the bank of Lithuania's commitment to supporting Moldova's European path and emphasised the significance of bilateral cooperation in modernising the banking sector, promoting economic growth, and improving people's lives.

The Twinning project "Strengthening supervision, corporate governance and risk management in the financial sector" was launched on 18 October 2021 and concluded this year. NBM partners include the National Bank of Romania, the Financial Supervisory Authority of Romania, the Central Bank of the Kingdom of the Netherlands, and the Central Bank of Lithuania.
