The meeting of the National Committee on Financial Stability on June 8, 2022

The National Committee on Financial Stability held its ordinary meeting on June 8, 2022 to examine issues related to the current situation of the component parts of the financial system.

The members of the Committee analyzed the current situation of the banking, insurance, and non-bank lending sectors, as well as the actions to mitigate the risks in the supervised sectors, undertaken by the National Bank of Moldova and the National Commission for Financial Markets.

Likewise, the members of the Committee discussed the risks to the soundness of the banking sector, in the context of the inflation during 2022, from the perspective of the quality of the loan portfolio for individuals and legal entities.
