National Bank of Moldova launches design competition for jubilee and commemorative coins, issuance of 2024 and 2025

National Bank of Moldova (NBM) launches design competition for jubilee and commemorative coins, issuance of 2024 and 2025.

The competition is open to individuals who have reached the age of 18, as well as legal entities. The number of drafts submitted by a participant for a topic is not limited, but not less than two conceptually different drafts per selected topic. Participants are required to comply with the legislation on copyright and related rights.

The basic criteria for selecting the submitted designs refers to the originality, creativity, esthetics, and coherence of the design elements, to be possible to execute them on the surface of the coins.

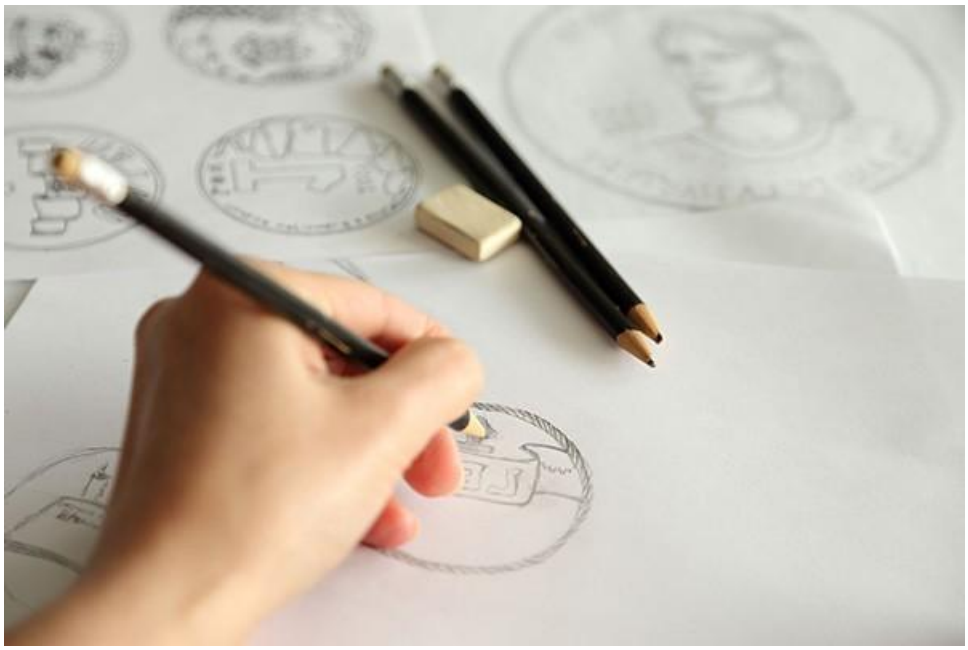

The requirements regarding the design of the coins, the conditions of examination and evaluation, the method of remuneration, including other details are described in the Procedure [1] for the design competition for jubilee and commemorative coins, issuance of 2024 and 2025 (enclosed).

The remuneration per winning design is 15 000 lei. Also, the name of the winner will be published on the NBM official website and inscribed in the certificates of authenticity that accompany the respective commemorative coin.

Detailed information on jubilee and commemorative coins issued so far by the National Bank of Moldova can be accessed using the link: https://www.bnm.md/en/content/commemorative-coins [2]

The deadline for submission of design projects is 22 April 2024 at 14^{00}.
